EIGHT DEAD IN APARTMENT FIRE; OTHERS MISSING

Single Stairway Bursts Into Flames Cutting Off Escape.

MANY LEAP FROM WINDOWS WHEN FLAMES CREEP CLOSE

Baby Tossed From Window By Mother Is Caught By Soldier.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)
Columbus, May 6.—Eight persons are known to have been killed and a dozen or more were injured, several probably fatally in a fire which early today destroyed a six-story apartment house in the downtown section.

Firemen continued during the day to search the debris for other victims, who are believed to have perished when four floors at the rear of the building sank to the basement.

Mrs. Charles C. Speakman, aged 45, Mr. and Mrs. George Reifsnider, Mrs. Carl Steigwald, aged 24, Louis Evans, aged 75, Mrs. Speakman's father, Charles Whittlesley, aged 37, elevator operator.

Mrs. Elsie Nettleton, aged 30, Frank Frederick, aged 35. The flames, said to have originated from an open gas jet, quickly enveloped the single stairway in the center of the building and cut off the escape of the sixty or more persons in the building. Men, women and children jumped from windows and several children were thrown from upper floors into fire nets.

Several heroic rescues were reported to the police. Several men were seen hanging from window ledges for minutes before they were rescued. Mrs. Speakman leaped head first to the pavement and was killed instantly. Mrs. Steigwald leaped, was injured severely and died while being taken to a hospital.

Four children, first believed to have perished, were rescued from the burning roof of the building. The damage was estimated at $50,000.

Miraculous escapes, many by jumps from the fifth and sixth stories into life nets, and the tossing of infants several stories into nets and arms of fire fighters made it the most spectacular fire this city has known.

At 4 o'clock this morning police found the bodies of a man and woman on the fourth floor. They had been suffocated and burned to death in bed.

Miss Anna Belle Joyce, aged 33, cannot live, physicians say. She was taken from the building in a semiconscious condition after the blaze was under control. The lower part of her body was horribly burned. Others are in hospitals with broken limbs and burns which may prove fatal in several instances, physicians say.

The fifth and sixth floors fell in and a search for bodies cannot be made until later in the day. It was on these floors that most of those unaccounted for were living.

Among the seriously injured in hospitals are: Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Andrew, Mrs. Harry Lawson and daughter, Delilah, aged six; Mrs. Irene Harris; Carl Steckman, aged 21; Elmer Knight, aged two; Charles O. Spierman, husband of one of the dead; an unidentified baby boy; Mrs. Robert Knight, aged 36, son Herbert, aged four.

Mrs. Charles Harrison tossed her five-month-old son from the third story into the arms of a soldier. The baby was uninjured. Mrs. Spierman was slightly injured in jumping into a fire net. Another woman lowered a babe in arms from the fourth floor to an adjoining two-story building by making a sling with bed sheets. Half a dozen small children and a score of men and women leaped to safety, many catching most of them, in frantic efforts to escape.

Practically all of the 60 odd occupants of the building were asleep when the fire was discovered. It started from a gas jet in a wash room on the second floor, quickly reaching the one stairway and elevator shaft, effectively shutting off all escape from the apartments above. Small ladder fire escapes on the rear of the building were jammed as soon as the alarm was given and those could not be used for escape until after the flames shut off that means of getting out. Scarcely clad and frantic, few hesitated in making leaps to the nets below. A number of injured suffered broken legs and other hurts in jumps.

Mrs. Speakman leaped head first to the pavement below and was instantly killed. Her husband's legs and an arm were broken in the same way. Harry Lawson forced his young daughter and wife to leap from the fifth floor and followed them. They were badly hurt but Lawson escaped serious injury.

Taxis, automobiles and ambulances hurried the injured to hospitals and private homes and it was impossible early this morning to find how many escaped, as well as to ascertain how seriously hurt were all the rescued.

The building in which the fire occurred was a brick structure of fire interior. Recent recommendations of the fire department to lessen the fire hazard had been taken, including the removal of swinging gas jets. Police Chief Charles E. Carter announced this morning, however, that an inquiry would be started at once to fix responsibility.

WILL TRY TO PASS BILL OVER VETO OF GOVERNOR COX

Republicans Expected to Stand Back of Joint Tax Committee Which Will Urge Law.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)
Columbus, May 6.—Republican members of the legislature are expected to stand solidly back of the joint taxation committee which last night voted to override the governor's veto on the emergency financial relief bill for cities and school districts. They also expect to obtain the aid of several Democratic members. The fact that two Democratic members of the joint taxation committee voted to override the executive veto Republican leaders believe will influence several other Democrats to support the measure.

Additional support also is expected as a result of the committee's decision to change the date for the special election at which bonds would be voted and additional taxes levied from June 10 to the regular primary election day, August 12. Farmer members who objected to the special election feature are expected to agree more readily to the new election date.

The identical bill as vetoed by the governor will not be re-passed, but an identical measure with the dates changed will be reintroduced by the joint taxation committee and passed as an emergency measure. The governor is expected to veto this measure also on the same ground that he vetoed the original bill. The new bill then will be passed over the executive veto. To have passed the original bill over the veto would have given taxing officials time to take all the preliminary steps. It was said last Monday was the last day on which councils and school boards could have enacted legislation to operate under the original bill.

Republican leaders expect to pass the new taxation bill and the biennial appropriation carrying almost $48,000,000 for the two years beginning July 1, this week and be in shape to further re-elect next Saturday. They plan to come back about June 1 to pass the tax bill over the executive veto and clean up the slate, preparatory to recessing until after the fall session.

The bill will be passed over the executive veto and clean up the slate, preparatory to recessing until after the fall session.

AVIATOR CLIMBS ABOUT PLANE IN MID-AIR TO FIX IT

Three views showing observer in airplane climbing about it above the clouds.

The airplane is the latest vehicle used to furnish the thrilling public with hair-raising stunts. Aviators have been performing almost unbelievable feats in and with them. A few months ago an aviator dropped from the lower plane of one machine to the top of another airplane while both were flying a mile above ground. A third airplane, in front, photographed the thriller. Recently an aviator was snapped while climbing all over his machine high above the clouds during a wind storm. While another flier guided the plane this dare-devil climbed out to the tips of the wings and crawled between the wires and struts to test the important parts. The photo shows him on his inspection tour.

A GREAT ECONOMY BE- CAUSE OF EXTRA WEAR

"After a trip to Kilauea, the active volcano of Hawaii, my Neolin-soled shoes were the only ones not absolutely ruined. Many in our party wore hob-nailed boots," said Miss Jean P. Lane of Seattle, Washington.

The sharp jagged lava of Kilauea cuts an ordinary sole to pieces quickly. That Neolin Soles stood the test but emphasizes their toughness and durability. These qualities are built into them by a scientific process. Women—and men and children, too—who are hard on shoes should buy them with Neolin Soles. They come in many styles, and because of the extra wear they give, are a great economy.

And any repairman will re-sole your Neolin-soled shoes with Neolin Soles, which are flexible and waterproof as well as long-wearing. They are made by The Goodyear Tire & Rubber Co., Akron, Ohio, who also make Wingfoot Heels, guaranteed to outwear all other heels.

"For twenty years I suffered with indigestion and constipation. I doctored with several doctors and took other medicines, but gained no relief. A representative asked me to try Dr. Parker's Treatment for Indigestion and Constipation. It certainly made a well man of me. I am now able to recommend it to my friends."—B. F. Ross, 226 Springfield Ave., Zanesville, Ohio.

"I know my treatment will do for any who suffer from indigestion, belching, bloating, cramps, head, back and stomach ache, heartburn, distention, loss of energy, sleep and appetite, constipation, weakness, cold extremities, or other symptoms of indigestion, just what it did for Mr. Ross. Your dollar back, if it does not help you."—Geo. B. Parker, M. D., Athens, Ohio.

A CLEAR COMPLEXION

Ruddy Cheeks—Sparkling Eyes
—Most Women Can Have

Says Dr. Edwards, a Well-Known Ohio Physician

Dr. F. M. Edwards for 17 years treated cases of women for liver and bowel ailments. During these years he gave to his patients a prescription made of a few well-known vegetable ingredients mixed with olive oil, naming them Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets. You will know them by their olive color.

These tablets are wonder-workers on the liver and bowels, which cause a normal action, carrying off the waste and poisonous matter in one's system.

If you have a pale face, yellow look, dull eyes, pimples, coated tongue, headaches, a listless, no-good feeling, all out of sorts, inactive bowels, you can cure all of these Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets nightly for a time and note the pleasing results.

Thousands of women as well as men take Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets—the successful substitute for calomel—now and then just to keep in the pink of condition. 50c and 25c per box. All druggists.

BIG CROWD PRESENT ON OPENING NIGHT AT MOUNDBUILDERS PARK

The cool weather last evening did not seem to dampen the ardor of the crowd which attended the Rubin & Cherry shows at Moundbuilders Park which will be here the entire week under the auspices of the Buckeye Land boys.

The big shows were only partially set up owing to the late arrival of the special train from Maysville, Ky., where they exhibited last week. The Daily Independent of that city has the following to say of the attractions:

"The Rubin & Cherry shows, which have been here all week have proved what they advertised to be and more. In fact it is a pleasure to the Independent to announce that the Rubin and Cherry Co. are in reality a traveling exposition company. The performances that have been given during the week at the different attractions have been of the highest class and have been attended nightly despite the inclement weather by the best of Maysville citizens.

Mr. Rubin Gruber, the owner and manager, insists that the shows are concessions carried by the company are of the highest class.

"It is the wish of a number of citizens that this company be secured for return date this fall for a fall exposition and fair."

The Buckeye Land boys will give a concert this evening on the public square after which they will be found in the fair grounds in charge of the boys on the various attractions, and they are many, including the whip, merry-go-round and Ferris wheel, big plantation show, Hawaiian troupe, dog and pony show, one ring circus, big Cuban circus, the fleet west, motorbromes, the congress of fat people, joyland, midget theatre and many other attractions that are bound to please.

The shows are feature with Prof. Angela Munnolo's famous royal Italian band and the doors all open at 7:30 o'clock. Follow the crowds to Moundbuilders park and spend a few pleasant hours viewing the wonders of the midway.

FORMER LICKING BOY IS NOW IN GERMANY

Private Charles L. Andrews of the 108 engineers train has been overseas since last June. After the signing of the armistice he was placed in the army of occupation. On April 10th he wrote his mother Mrs. C. Andrews of Thurston, from Germany that he knew nothing definite as to when he would start home.

Private Andrews was born and reared in Licking county. The family moved to Thurston about eight years ago.

Readers' Viewpoint

Welcome the Rainbow Boys.

Editor of the Advocate.—There are two reasons why SEWARD should be a delegation representing not only the city, but Licking county also, to welcome back the 166th regiment of the "Rainbow division," when they arrive at Columbus. A reservation should be asked for a special place suitable to view the parade from as all cities that have boys in that regiment have already done. First, Newark and Licking county had a greater number of men in company B of that regiment in this war than their were in the entire membership of the "Old Co. G" of the 17th regiment in the "war with Spain." Second, as this old Co. G became Co. G of the 4th Ohio and as this testimonial of the appreciation of the great sacrifice made by these boys of today, was made possible by the old veterans association of the 14th, 4th Ohio boys of which our company G became a member. We should send a large delegation on that occasion, probably Friday or Saturday of this week. All soldiers of this war are asked to wear uniforms, and a place in the parade has been assigned to them, without regard to their service either on land or sea, under water, or in the air. Colonel George Zverner states that the Spanish War Veterans will wear the blue and gray or the blue and khaki trousers, and campaign hat or their service khaki uniforms, veterans having no uniforms are entitled to march in their civilian clothes. Lack of uniform should be no drawback to getting in the parade and giving "The Boys a hand." Watch the papers for time of parade and then, hike to Columbus.

CLIFF ROSENBERG.

The ranking industries in Barcelona, Spain are textile, coal, wine making, machinery, and shipbuilding and pressing shoe-making, chemical, mining, cement and other metal industries.

It is quite possible for a fellow to say nothing and say a lot without making any of the boys say.

SEEK HOME FOR TWO GIRLS WARDS OF STATE CHARITY BOARD

STELLA SINKO.

Two beautiful children, with dark eyes and dark curls are looking for a home with some family, or with neighboring families, so they must not be far separated. A Catholic home is preferred for the little girls.

They are Stella and Rosie Sinko, aged 12 and 10 years, and they are the wards of the Children's welfare department of the state board of charities, and will make a Catholic home a happy one for some family.

If some family is interested in one of the girls, they are asked to try and interest a neighbor to take the other. The children are splendidly fit, physically and mentally and would add to the happiness of any home life. They are homeless and of Catholic parentage, and no other home is being considered by the board unless no Catholic home is available.

Any one interested in the children is asked to correspond with the Ohio state board of charities, Children's welfare department 335 South High street,

ROSIE SINKO

Columbus or A. W. Caldwell, field supervisor of the children's welfare department at Pataskala.

Where Blame Lies.
Life starts most of us out with an excellent equipment of strength. It is our own abuse of this strength that brings about our ailments. Life starts most of us out with courage and will. It is our own neglect of these qualities that sets courage and will dwindling. Life starts most of us with very good looks or with looks that are good enough. It is our own neglect of personal care that makes us plain looking.

CHEROKEE CAR FOUND BY HAMILTON POLICE

Chief James Sheridan of the police department has succeeded in recovering one of the stolen Cherokee touring cars, taken in the public square last night. It is the property of Floyd W. Gleason of Johnston, who had offered $25.00 reward for any information leading to the recovery of the machine. It was found in Hamilton.

After the robbery had been reported to Chief Sheridan the latter called up all cities which might be visited by the auto thieves in endeavoring to make their escape. Cards were also mailed broadcast and the result was that Ernest Thonhill was arrested at Dayton, on a burglary charge and confessed to being one of three men who stole the two machines in this city. Later one of the machines was found at Hamilton, and the two other men, Clarence Haas and Charles Robinson, were taken into custody and one car recovered. It is quite likely that the other car, belonging to L. A. Christman of Homer will also be recovered.

Chief Sheridan will leave tomorrow for Hamilton to identify and return with Gleason's car.

Milady's Boudoir

Nerves and Beauty.
Ragged nerves and beauty do not go hand in hand. There is no use in striving to make a lovely complexion and perfect features if one always feels like running and screaming. Frazzled nerves will ruin all the labor of the best beautifiers. We must learn how to rest as thoroughly as we have learned so splendidly how to be restless and ever on the move. Half the rushing about we do is unnecessary, unimportant and inefficient. It leaves us worn out and without any vitality to our credit.

It ages us, when we think it is helping to keep us young. It makes us most unpleasant persons to live with, for the poor woman with ragged nerves cannot help being irritated and irresponsible. And it makes her woefully inefficient. The first thing such women need to learn is how to let go and to rest. Go to some quiet place and lie down. Forget the outside world. Let nature do what all the physicians cannot do without her help.

Run away into the lovely pink and green country and let the soft breezes kiss your throbbing head and blow the wrinkles out of your strained face, and let the birds and the brooks sing you to placidness.

In the meantime we may seek beauty and nerve bath in tonic baths. We can give our throbbing head and blow the wrinkles out of your strained face, and let the birds and the brooks sing you to placidness.

There are other wonderful baths that will make you feel like a new woman. Boil half a pound of pine cones half an hour and strain the infusion into the bedtime bath. Or mix together one ounce of tincture of camphor, two ounces of cologne and half an ounce of tincture of lemon. Add enough of this to the tub of water to make it milk, and soft.

Our Boys and Girls

Precocious children are, as a rule, heavier, and dull children lighter, than the average child of the same age. Precocious children are taller and have larger chests and wider heads than backward children.

No child whose weight is below the normal standard for his or her age should be permitted to enter any kind of a school grade that an average child of his or her age attends, except after such a physical examination as shall satisfy the physician that the child's strength will be equal to the strain. Here the connection between physical conditions is very plain.

Physical weakness often produces an abnormal mental state and this should be closely watched.

In illness or convalescence, or when suffering from hunger or fatigue, most of us are more irritable than when we have our full strength, self-reliance, truthfulness, in temper, and the like very often have a pathological basis.

Every Day Etiquette

When entering a house to call is it the best place to offer to shake hands, or should I offer to shake hands first? ask Miriam.

"The best," offered her hand but the guest also offers here," said her older friend.

Marked Suspicious.
The flesh of the shark is said to resemble that of the surgeon—the fish that "goes to the surgeon's dish" but its cannibalistic reputation, firmly fixed in the popular mind, is against it. Marked and of the gastronomically untried is equally by his curiosity, which he all gets the better of his fears. Only he was a brave man who first swallowed a raw oyster.

Tommy, 6, what is envy? Tom answered, "My son, I don't know what it is, but I have heard a bachelor who has been disappointed in love feel for each other."

BLACK FROCKS ARE EVER FASHIONABLE

Black frocks are always the vogue and are especially so now. This one of accordion plaited chiffon with black chamilly lace yoke and short loose sleeves has a smart finishing touch in the black moire silk girdle and sash. The three tiered skirt and long blouse reaching to the hips are distinctive features.

OBITUARY

Emmett Patterson.
Emmett Patterson, 81, one of the oldest citizens of Madison township, died at his home on East Main street, Monday afternoon, after a brief illness of pneumonia. His father James W. Patterson was one of the pioneers of Licking county. He came direct from Ireland to this country and taking up his residence in Madison township was one among those who first settled the land. It was here on his father's farm and from this sturdy pioneer stock that Emmett Patterson was born, more than eighty one years ago and it was here that he spent his life with the exception of the few years of retirement spent in Newark.

He was married to Carrie Wilson, on November 21, 1867 and two children blessed this union, a son James Patterson who died some four years ago and a daughter, Olive, who still survives and who through the years has remained at home and cared for her aged parents.

Mr. Patterson was always interested in the great political and religious movements the world over and to the last kept abreast the times. At the time of the Civil War, he answered his country's call. He was always of a cheerful disposition and there was such a rich vein of humor cropping out in every conversation that gave him a peculiar charm of personality.

At the age of 25 he united with the Bowling Green Methodist church, which was located near the old home. He was a member of this church during all of his active life, serving as trustee for many years. At the time of his death he was a member of the East Main street Methodist church in Newark and was one of the board of trustees. He was interested, all of his life, in the work of the church and gave generously to its support.

He leaves besides his wife and daughter, many friends who mourn his loss. Funeral services will be held on Wednesday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock at the residence, conducted by the Rev. J. Emory Walter.

Mrs. Alva Boggs.
Funeral services for Mrs. Alva Boggs will be held at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Bittinger, 27 West Church street, Wednesday afternoon at 2 o'clock instead of at the Boggs home as was previously announced.

Mr. Loughman's Funeral.
The funeral of John S. Loughman will be held at the M. E. church at 11 o'clock Wednesday afternoon. The funeral party will leave the house at 2 o'clock. Services at the church will be under the auspices of Jackson lodge, F. and A. M. Burial will be made in Poplar Fork cemetery. Mr. Loughman was 77 years old, being born in Hope well township in 1842.

Infant's Funeral.
The funeral of the infant son of Mr. and Mrs. Forest Ditty was held this morning and burial took place in Fairmount cemetery.

Mrs. Mahala Woodard.
Funeral services for Mrs. Mahala Woodard, who died Sunday were held this morning at 11 o'clock in the Licking cemetery.

Too Cool for Comfort.
The coldest place on earth inhabited by man is Verkhoyansk, above the Arctic circle, in northeastern Siberia. The thermometer there drops to 50 degrees below zero in January, but sometimes rises to 80 degrees above zero in the shade in July. However, to the freezing point on the warmest summer day.

If the wife is your sister engaged to be married, asked young Mr. Gotroff, "Not yet," replied Willie, but she said if she is, I don't know tonight how I will live it up as a bride."

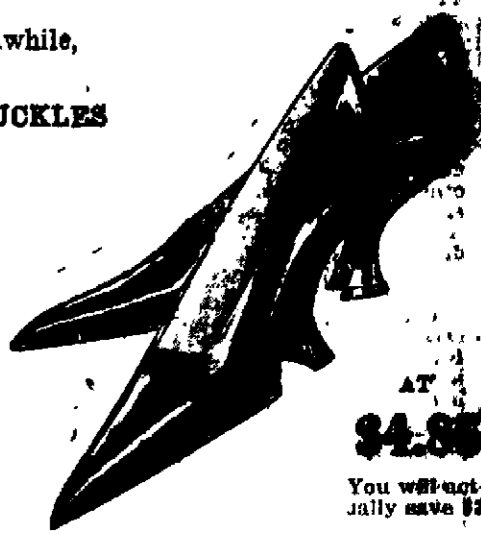

There wouldn't even be any captains of industry if it wasn't for the army of privates.

"Best for Sore Muscles" Says Olympian Athlete

E. T. Cook, Jr.,
Famous Cornell
Sprinter Says:

"I would recommend it (Houstonia Liniment) above all others for keeping the muscles in best condition for pulled tendons, sprains or poisoned cuts from splined shoes, etc."

Sore, stiff muscles are a handicap in every walk of life. Shop injures (like those of the track) may prove serious unless precautions are taken.

The worker is wise who keeps Houstonia (The Original Jones') Liniment on hand. Not only does it penetrate quickly to the deeper tissues—relieving pain, soreness and swelling—but its antiseptic, healing properties are invaluable in case of injury. No other liniment possesses all these virtues.

Say "House-tone-e-ah" to your druggist. Large bottles are fifty cents—four ounce bottles a "quarter."

AMUSEMENTS

ALHAMBRA

Thou Shalt Not.

Large crowds at the Alhambra yesterday sat in awe at the 6 reels of the William Fox feature "Thou Shalt Not" which was run off and all were of the opinion—very good and Evelyn Nesbit in the title role proved herself a clever actress. It is a story of a modern Midwestern, written by Charles Bradin and it is perhaps the best feature this star has so far given at the Alhambra. The author himself considers that it surpasses in strength, moral force and sustained drama "The Stinson," a feature that several years ago created a world wide sensation. "Thou Shalt Not" contains somewhat the same idea as "The Stinson," only the modern technique of the director has endowed it with considerably more in strength number—who, though not a young man, looks like a good catch to the grandfathers; a man who will tame his wild Cynthy. Cynthy has another admirer, Jeff Peters—something of a bad man, who allows he can lick any one in the mountains. One evening old Quimby overhears Jeff making love to Cyntha, but he does not hear Cynthy coax Jeff to do something to prevent the contemplated wedding. Fearful that her plans will miscarriage, Quimby demands that Cynthy marry Plunkett the next day. The wedding ceremony is under way. The minister asks Cynthy if she takes Plunkett for her lawfully wedded husband, to love, honor and obey, and she replies: "I certainly do not."

Houdini in the 11th episode of "The Master Mystery" is an added feature.

Johnny who is always on the spot in thrillingly shown in this play which will appeal to all ages.

The Hell Cat.

Ten cowboys assisted Geraldine Farrer in "The Hell Cat," the entire production of which was made in Wyoming. The play, the diva's second Goldwyn Picture, comes to the Alhambra theatre beginning Friday and those who enjoy a powerful drama in the romantic environment of the Far West should not miss it.

The cowboys were all native sons of Wyoming and not one had ever left the prairies and mountains of that glorious state. Needless to say, the dramatic diva, whose keen evaluation of people is well known, delighted in the association.

Every morning at the start of the day's work, all ten of the boys were carefully made up. This was done to make them look like the other members of the cast. Had it not been done their faces would have looked many shades darker.

GRAND.

"And the Children Pay."

After turning the Chicago and state press upside down over a year ago when it came up before the censorship board and was refused a permit by Maj. Funkhouser, emerged a month or six weeks ago for its long delayed premiere. Five straight weeks on Madison avenue to capacity houses.

Kitty Kelly in the Herald and Examiner says: "The story is world-old and world-new and is needed as long as people shall flourish the earth."

"Prisoners of the Pines" is an exceptional screen offering, even if you regard it merely as a series of picturesque photographic achievements, but when these wonderful scenes are hooked up with a story of the worth of "Prisoners of the Pines" the combination is unusual, even in these days of unusual screen accomplishments.

GEM.

Can a woman be legally freed from the man she has married voluntarily, if her promise to be was obtained by means of hypnotic power? This is the novel and interesting question that has been raised by the case of Beatrice Buchanan. It appears that as soon as her promise was given, Buchanan denounced their engagement, and dreading notoriety the young woman had gone through with the unhappy affair. The particulars are set forth in the newest William Fox drama, "Buchanan's Wife," which will appear at the Gem theatre Wednesday.

LYRIC.

At the Lyric today, The Poster Girls, a company of 10 people, in all new and up to date musical comedies, featuring Miss Nancy Foster and her company of clever singers and dancers with a chorus of pretty girls.

Owing to the death of one of the Tita company the Lyric was closed all day Monday.

AUDITORIUM.

"Less Than Kin."

Romance, fun, mystery, and the lure of a Central American Revolution are happily mingled in "Less Than Kin," the new Paramount Picture which was presented at the Auditorium theatre yesterday. The ever-popular Wallace Reid is starred, with Ann Little as his leading woman and both were well received. The screen version was written by Marion Fairfax from the famous novel by Alice Duerr Miller.

All of you who love fascinating stories of soldiers of fortune—and that includes everybody—will like this colorful new picture, for it certainly gives parts of the best acting parts of his career in the role of the boyant, care-devil Lewis Vickers, who gets into bushes of trouble in both the United States and Central America and then gets out of it through his own nerve and resource.

There is a strong supporting cast, including Raymond Hatton, Gustav Seyffertitz, Noah Berry, James Neill, Charles Ogle, Jane Wolff, James Cruze, Guy Oliver and Calvert Carter. The story value of the picture is heightened to a great extent by the splendid direction of Donald Crisp and his assistant, Nat Deverich. Henry Kotani has contributed some excellent camera work, the scenes of Central America being admirable examples of photographic art. The last screenings are shown today.

"The Shepherd of the Hills."

A photo-play of good philosophy unfolded in a story that interests, and with an underlying preaching that is timely and valuable is found in "The Shepherd of the Hills." This drama is a pictureization of Harold Bell Wright's ever living novel of the same name. Beneath the surface of the story in which there is a quantity of heart interest and dramatic possibilities there is a message that cannot help but find a responsive chord in the hearts of the spectators. The same qualities that made the novel read and enjoyed by millions will make the photo-play stand long as a drawing attraction.

The scene of the play is laid in the Ozark Mountains where our so-called civilization has not yet spread its refining but enervating influences. A father, resolved to blot out as much as possible the sin of his artist son, leaves his life of ease and elegance to come among these people. Among the hills and in the woods, he can drop the carping practicalities of life and can listen to the wind, nature's way, voice, as it sings to him its songs of beauty and of strength. The message he transmits to the people about him. He does not preach the gospel of good but acts his commandments. As a result he brings peace where there was unrest, forgiveness where there was hate. Throughout this play there is no effort at sermonizing, yet in a crystal it shows the things that are really big and worth while. It lays out again the battle lines of the old fight of the city against the country and then launches the idea that there are certain men whom the Creator intended to live in the city and to thrive among its artificialities, and some men who were intended to live only in the hills and in the woods, some who could live the life of men and be men no matter where placed. It gives the lesson that fundamental principles of right are ideals, that sometimes seem to smother among the concrete things of life must in the end triumph. That only truth, justice and beauty can remain alive in the survival of the fittest. Truly great subject matter for a photo play and one well worth seeing. It comes to the Auditorium next Thursday.

"Bare Fists."

Some wonderfully picturesque views of the cattle country are to be seen in "Bare Fists," Harry Carey's latest picture, to be shown next Sunday at the Auditorium. Jack Ford, the director, has a penchant for wide backgrounds and the photographer has succeeded in catching the depth of "shots" across wide valleys and plains.

Spray Trees To Save Apple Crop Is Advice
"If farmers expect to produce apples that are free from worms, trees must be sprayed with lime-sulphur and arsenate of Coteolum just after the blossoms have fallen," declared L. L. Mowbray, county agricultural agent today.

"From 70 to 85 per cent of the first brood of codling worms enter the apple at the calyx and at this time and these worms can be killed if poison is there when they take their first meal. A spray mixture is made of one part of commercial lime sulphur to 40 gallons of water along with three pounds of arsenate of lead paste or one and one half lb. of the powder to 50 gallons of the mixture.

"The spraying should begin when 50 per cent of the petals have fallen and before the weight of the fruit has turned the cups toward the ground. Ten days after blossoming is about the outer limit of the time when the spraying may be done satisfactorily. For a spray calendar or further particulars call at the farm bureau office."

A NEW ERA OF POPULARITY FOR THE BICYCLE
The day of real sport! How the hearts of men tingle with pleasure when they hark back, say, twenty years ago to the days when they too loved along with the whine of the wind, on their trusty old "bikes!" Will you ever forget that memorable morning when you wheeled that gliding new bicycle over the first glorious spin over the bounding roads? More than one million bicycles were manufactured last year and the riders of today are every bit as enthusiastic and proud of their mounts as you used to be.

Twenty years ago, the bicycle was at the height of its glory and popularity. Nearly everybody rode a "wheel," it seemed. It was more of a universal proposition than any other kind of vehicle—much more than the automobile or the motorcycle, which stole many of its devotees away, and caused a slump for a time.

But the bicycle had been too well established and its utility too clearly demonstrated for it to go out of use. The market for it has always been steady and consistent.

The fact is, in recent years there has been a considerable revival of its popularity. During last year, for example, bicycle sales almost doubled.

There were nearly 40,000 bicycles in actual service with the A. E. F. in France. Many needs of heroism stand to the credit of the bicycle corps which rendered such exceptional service in maintaining the lines of communication under fire.

Many new uses have been found for the bicycle in business life. As a matter of fact, people have just been waking up to its possibilities as a practical and economical means of locomotion. Congested conditions, poor transportation service, the long distances in cities, are problems which the cyclist solves.

The revival of the country is an indication of the cyclists' appreciation of their new opportunities in this direction. And by the way, bicycle racing is again coming into wide popularity.

No question about it—the bicycle is coming into its own again. Its fine record in the war, its many-sided utility in modern business, its wonderful aid for people in need of health, its undoubted economy and convenience—all have combined to make it even more desirable than before.

TIME ORDINANCE IS PASSED OVER ATHERTON'S VETO

Only One Vote Opposed The Action and Eastern Time Is Adopted.

Street Paving Plans Are Submitted By City Engineer Charles Wells

A regular session of the city council was held last evening, all members being present with the exception of Councilman Phil Baker, who was ill. It was a brief but lively meeting, the principal business of the evening consisting of the passage of several ordinances and resolutions and the passage of the time ordinance over the veto of Mayor Atherton.

It was nearly 8 o'clock when President R. L. Williams called for order, after roll call and the reading of the minutes the mayor submitted his report for the month of April, showing that $186.40 had been collected in fines and vendors' licenses.

Clerk George Hamilton then submitted his report, a letter of appreciation from the city administration to Edward H. Everett of Washington, D. C., but formerly of this city, for the splendid gift of $20,000 in Liberty bonds to the City Hospital. The letter expressed to Mr. Everett not only the thanks of the city officials but also of the citizens of Newark.

City Engineer Wells submitted plans for improving of Poplar avenue between South Fifth and South Sixth street by paving and curbing, the estimated cost of which is $7,882.30, of which the city's portion will be $1,204.70.

He also submitted plans for the paving of South Third street from Harrison street to the National bank, the cost of which is estimated at $11,000, of which the city's share to be $3,732.50. The report was received and filed, council approving the plans.

A petition signed by nine property holders called attention to the bad condition of an alley on the north side of the White Athletic field and asked that it be remedied.

An invitation was read from the Natural Gas Association of America inviting the city officials to attend a meeting to be held in the Armory at Cleveland, Ohio, on May 14th.

A report was presented by the health officer which contained a proposition from A. S. Stephan for the collection of garbage at a contract price of $3,000 per year for two years, to be paid in monthly installments of $250. It was received and filed.

The health board reported that there was no available funds for the operation of the department and asked for the advancement of $1,500 on the next tax settlement. The request was received and filed.

An ordinance by Councilman Knauber was passed under a suspension of the rules which delegated authority to the clerk of council to contract for all legal advertising which is required in one newspaper only.

An ordinance by Councilman Bazler was passed under a suspension of the rules granting permission to E. J. Nigh and H. O. Piles to erect a gasoline tank at North Fourth and Church streets under the sidewalk.

Councilman Higgins asked that Ordinance 2884 be read and passed over the mayor's veto. It related to adopting Eastern time and which was passed several weeks ago and which the mayor vetoed. Higgins spoke in favor of the ordinance stating that the two times in the city caused much annoyance and confusion. He also said that the government would be sure, place Newark in the central standard time limit when congress meets again and it would do away with the one hour we now have under eastern time.

A vote was taken on the passage of the ordinance and resulted seven in favor and one opposed, the latter being Councilman Ashbrook.

A resolution introduced by Councilman Knauber was adopted providing for the appointment of a committee of three members by the president of the council to act with a similar committee of the Licking County Bar association for the purpose of securing permission for the use of the city hall for the establishment for Newark City and New ark township January 1, 1920.

A resolution by Knauber was adopted providing that where a street is to be improved by paving or repaving, no person should erect any building or structure to make any gas, water or sewer connections until 10 years after paving is laid.

A resolution by Councilman Ashbrook, Baker and Knauber was adopted declaring it necessary to improve South Third street from Harrison street to the National Drive by curbing and paving the roadway. A similar resolution by Councilman Baker was adopted for Poplar avenue between South Fifth and South Sixth streets.

A resolution by Knauber recommended the settlement of the terms agreed upon between the city solicitor and A. D. Hartsough, in the latter's damage suit against the city for the death of his son several years ago when he was struck by a car on a street light wire in North Fourth street, the city to pay damages in the sum of $2,000.

Councilman Knauber announced that a meeting of the finance committee would be held Thursday evening of this week at the council chamber and invited the members of council and heads of city departments to be present in case they desired to attend.

The report of the special committee consisting of Messrs. Knauber, Faust and Higgins, on the leasing of the Licking County fair grounds for park purposes was received and filed, the committee stating that it had submitted a copy of the lease to the city of Zanesville on the Madison county, for grounds and that the Licking county board of directors did not care to accept the same.

A copy of an ordinance granted by the council of Zanesville to the Michigan and Ohio Road company for 15 years was left to the inspection of the council. It provided for the collection of all garbage in the city and manufacturing the same into fuel called coke. The company is desirous of obtaining a similar franchise in this city.

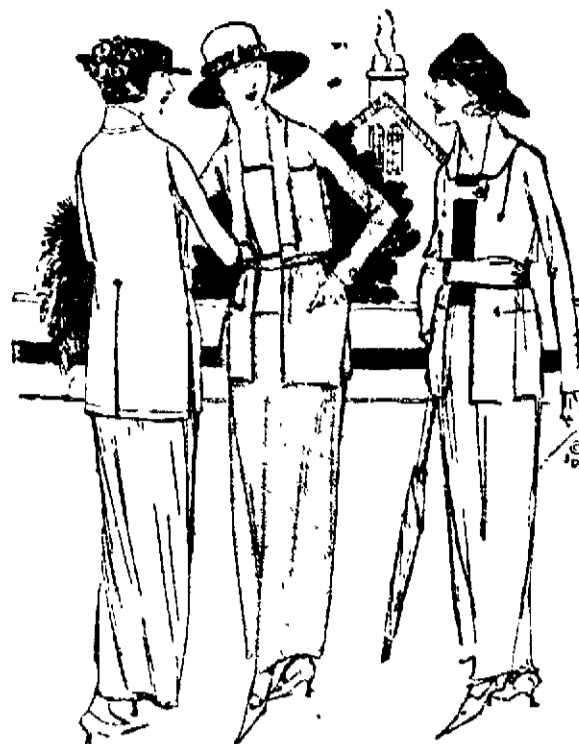

You have seen very familiar to me," explained the fellow well met as he stepped from the bus, "I am a stranger on the back of the bus, I applied the pompous stranger. Now, in your manner than seems very familiar to me."

I have just now making work on graduates of the city or to him in order to be a good and mechanics are now engaged in testing and experimental work with excellent results.

MR. BEENEY SAYS BICYCLE TIRE SALES INCREASING
"Our bicycle tire sales," says Howard Beeneey, local Firestone dealer, "have surprised our entire organization. For the last three or four months they have been almost double the sales of the same month a year ago. In fact, the Firestone 'Non-Skide' are in such demand that we have had to enlarge our facilities considerably to keep pace with it."

"I look for a big year for the bicycle trade generally. It is not hard to figure out why the bicycle is again becoming popular. It meets a distinct need in our modern life—as the only really practical self-propelled vehicle. In proportion to the improvement in returns are maximum in convenience, economy of operation, and useful service."

What if You Can't Get a New Car in 1919?

817,000 cars were "scrapped" in 1917

"Mother, the old car certainly deserves the best we can do for it!"

"Surely our old friend Car ought to have a new Eveready battery to carry it through the long year ahead. It will be little enough for all he has done for us."

"We can't any of us afford to gamble on whether the car will stand up to the work in 1919, and its got to. So I move, Mother, that we get an Eveready right now—it's guaranteed for a year and a half—and I'll bet the whole family will second the motion. The Eveready Service Station has just the size we need for the car, and they're mighty decent people at testing the battery and keeping it up to the mark."

"Make it unanimous—don't let the old car think we are pikers."

KIWANIS HEAR ABOUT LAUNDRY

Processes Employed In Licking Laundry Plant Described at Monday Noon Meeting.

Attendance at the Kiwanis club went to 55 per cent Monday. A few members have been dropped from this organization because of continued absence. The club intends to keep its membership in the ranks of busy men who are not too busy to meet once a week for the interchange of ideas and the pleasures of comradeship. T. O. Speck gave a short account of the Licking Laundry company's work and aims. This plant employs 60 people and maintains a downtown receiving station. Dry cleaning and carpet renovating have been added to its work and new machinery is being constantly added. A dining room for the female employees is mentioned. The Speck Brothers came here five years ago from Coshocton, Ohio and have put the laundry in the front part of Newark industry.

G. G. Barber of the Wehrle company, presented Charles Wells, the city engineer, with a miniature and yet capacious safe. Wells was again fortunate in receiving the loan of Willis Sachs of the B. & O., as was C. S. Osburn. Ray Allison, a returned soldier, was the guest of the club. The club is adding numbers daily, preferring a picked few to a mixed mob.
